PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Before joining Mudge, Porter, Lundeen & Seguin, S.C., in 1990 I worked as a law clerk for Miller Brewing Company in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. I also worked as a research assistant for Professor (Emeritus) Ralph C. Anzivino during my last year of law school. I assisted in preparing the text for Professor Anzivino's book entitled Partnership and Partnership Bankruptcy, (1990).

After joining Mudge, Porter, Lundeen & Seguin, S.C. in 1990, I became active in several community organizations, including the Hudson Area Chamber of Commerce and served as President of the St. Croix Valley Bar Association. I became a shareholder with Mudge, Porter, Lundeen & Seguin, S.C. in 2002 and remained in that position until I started the Law Office of Lisa A. Wiebusch, LLC on January 1, 2021. I continue to focus on the representation of injured workers. I have handled hundreds of cases in front of state and federal administrative agencies with my primary focus that of representing the injured worker and plaintiffs.

I have conducted numerous presentations on workers compensation and employment law and traveled throughout the State of Wisconsin speaking to various labor unions and presenting materials at Union Steward Conferences on multiple occasions.
